NEW FIGHT NEAR

Yunnanese Forces To Attack Chen's Home Town

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Washington, Jan. 23.—It has been announced here that Dr. Sun Yat-sen will leave Shanghai for Canton on Saturday.

The above dispatch from America is the first intimation that Dr. Sun had decided to yield to the pressing invitations that have been extended to him to return to Canton.

Dr. Sun and other prominent members of the Koumingtang party were hosts at the Oriental hotel Tuesday night to Messrs. Joffe and Kousalopoff, envoy to China from Soviet Russia and head of the Centrosouyz (All Siberian Society) in Shanghai, respectively.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 24.—Reports are current in Peking that Dr. Sun Yat-sen has raised $350,000 on behalf of General Hsu Shun-chi whose troops are leaving by two routes in order to reach Kwangtung.

The Kiangsi forces are advancing on Sheklung which is General Chen Chiung-ming's first defence line, and have already reached Hsipo. It has been planned that the Yunnanese troops should directly attack Waichow, General Ling Ho, a supporter of General Chen Chiung-ming, is marching to Waichow with the object of supporting the latter.

(China Press Service)

Canton, Jan. 23.—A detachment of Kwangsi troops, dispatched by Gen. Liu Chen-hwan and commanded by Gen. Li Ting-kan, reached the vicinity of Sheklung yesterday and will advance on Waichow today.

A report reaching the headquarters of the allied Kwangsi and Yunnan troops in Canton states that Gen. Chen Chiung-ming and the remnants of his troops have retreated from Waichow to Hoyuen en route for Kiangsi. Gen. Chen is reported to have declared:

"As I am a native of Waichow, I will not make this district a battle field, anticipating an invasion by the enemy. I will move my troops to Kiangsi and I shall return to Canton in six months."

The region from Sheklung to Waichow is reported to have been cleared of General Chen's troops.

Germany Leads In Ship-building

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 24.—A feature of Lloyd's Report which is arousing the keenest interest is the indication of Germany's strides in ship-building. Germany was the only country last year which exceeded her construction in 1921, while in the past two years she has exceeded her pre-war record.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 23.—According to Lloyd's Annual Report for 1922, 235 vessels were launched in Great Britain and Ireland, totalling 1,031,031 tons, 506,971 tons lower than in 1921 and representing 41.8 percent of the world's output. Of this total 762,769 tons were for registration in Great Britain and Ireland, 268,312 for owners residing abroad, including 33,092 in British dominions.

Six hundred and seventeen vessels, totalling 1,436,003 tons were launched in other countries, a decrease of 1,367,624 under the total in 1921, of which Germany launched 575,264 tons, the United States 119,138, Japan 83,419 and the Dominions 62,765.

A striking feature was the great increase in steam turbines and internal combustion engines and the corresponding decrease in reciprocating engines.

Lieut.-Col. Gordon is expected to arrive here about March 22 and with a view to reducing as far as possible the period between the present Commandant's departure and his successor's arrival, Col. PRIVATE RICSHA LICENSES TO BE MADE UNIFORM

Fee To Be $5 Quarterly In Both Settlements

A compromise whereby private ricsha licenses shall be at the same fee in the French and International settlements—$5—has been arrived at by members of the Councils of both Municipalities.

The decision was arrived at during the meeting of the Watch Committee on January 9, when Mr. le Bris, Frenchtown Councilman and Mr. P. Legendre, secretary of the French Council, were present. The quarterly fee in the International Settlement is at present $6, having been raised from $4 last July, whereas the French license is $4 a quarter. The change is recommended to go into effect April 1.

BY DOMINO

Good old A. D. C.!

It was a perfect treat to sit again in the Lyceum Theater and see a big bunch of amateurs thoroughly enjoy themselves in giving a fine rendering of Edward German's comic opera "Tom Jones." But if that good-looking crowd had a good time it was as nothing to what we people had on the dark side of the footlights. We were delighted. We all wanted to have a share in the show. We didn't know the music and all we could do was to clap and clap and clap. We clapped for everyone who came on the stage. When Mrs. Isenman appeared we clapped till the blisters appeared. When Raggett—"Tom Jones"—was pulled on by a bevy of pretty girls we busted those blisters. When Mrs. Chris Wingrove jumped on we created more blisters, and then with Springie and his dogs and the chorus we just busted blisters and made more.

I'm tired. I'm not going to clap any more. I mustn't. If I do I shall not be able to wield either a pen or the piece of chalk that is my symbol of office.

At two minutes to nine I heard the tinkle tinkle of the warning bell. When the Customs Clock ought to be striking the curtain slowly rose upon a beautiful picture. That curtain was the only slow thing in the show. From the rise of that sheet until its final fall, some nearly three hours after, a crowded house was kept interested, amused and enthused.

What a picture presented itself to our eyes at the start! Mrs. Harry Morris designed the costumes. Mrs. Wilson executed them. Those two good ladies call for a big hand. I clap and damn those blisters. Perfect, my dear readers, Perfect!

And those charmingly gowned people lived up to their fine feathers. Let it be said at once that the large chorus was one of the features of the show. If at time they were weak in the initial attack they made up for it in the straight. Very often a bad starter finds the rails at the right moment. Springie is an example. The chorus is another example. If they didn't get off just when Jack Raynes dropped his flag—I mean his stick

COUNCIL REFUSES MONOPOLY FOR PEDICAB SERVICE

Also Intimates Will Remove Limit On Public Ricshas

The Municipal Council has refused to grant a monopoly in regard to the proposed introduction of the "pedicab," or cycle driven vehicle, to Shanghai streets, according to today's issue of the Municipal Gazette. On the contrary, it is intimated that, on recommendation of the Commissioner of Police, the Municipality will do away with the present limitation of the number of public ricsha licenses, believing that this will tend to improve the standard of these vehicles and that the law of supply and demand will solve the question of possible greater traffic congestion.

The matter of allowing a monopoly in the pedicab service was brought up at the meeting of the Watch Committee on January 9, when representatives of the French Municipal Council were also present. The legal adviser of the pedicab promoters raised the point that his clients would have to run the risk of competition which might well drive them from business and pointed out the large capital expenditure necessary to launch the pedicab proposition. In reply the Councilmen stated that the Municipality would promise the issue of as many licenses for pedicabs—even up to 6,000 or more—as the applicant desired should the 200 trial cabs prove a success. The French Council's representatives concurred in this.

PLAN PROPOSED TO SAFEGUARD LOCAL TRIBUNAL

Chamber To Support Diplomatic Action Taken For Return Of S'hai Court

While supporting the diplomatic action being taken by the Peking Government for the return of the Shanghai Mixed Court to Chinese judicial authorities, the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce at Shanghai, through its special committee on the return of the Mixed Court, yesterday decided to file a petition with the government authorities, asking for guarantee of the integrity of the court which will supersede the present tribunal in the settlement.

A sub-committee was appointed to draft the petition, which will include, among other conditions, the term that all magistrates and judges sitting in the new Court must be endorsed by the local chamber.

The committee was unanimous in favoring the return of the present court to Chinese authorities and, after a long discussion, passed a resolution supporting the action being taken by the Peking Government in offering certain conditions to the Diplomatic Body for the return of the Court.

RADIO 'INTERFERENCE' MARS CONCERT HERE; GOOD PROGRAM TONIGHT

Some Of Last Evening's Features "Went Over" Beautifully, But Others Were Interrupted By Outside Wireless

IT MAY HAVE BEEN WOOSUNG

Earl Currens' Astor House Orchestra Music Danced To By Madison's Passengers As Liner Lay In Yangstze

An otherwise perfect demonstration of the radiophone was marred last night by outside aerial interference from some wireless station. The news bulletins, musical selections and announcements broadcasted from the roof of the Dollar building on Canton Road were heard distinctly by a number of amateur sets in the city, and it is believed the program was heard in Tientsin, Hongkong and Soochow, where receiving sets are in operation. Hongkong reports hearing the first night's concert quite clearly.

Parts of the program in the Astor House grill room were heard plainly and clearly, showing that the radio was in perfect working order, but at frequent intervals the outside wireless station's signals caused unknown contortions in the ether waves.

Mr. E. G. Osborn of the Radio Corporation of China, which operates the broadcasting station in conjunction with THE CHINA PRESS, worked all day yesterday getting the amplifying apparatus at the Astor in perfect shape and in tests yesterday afternoon everything worked like a charm. Last night, however, shortly after the program began the outside station—believed to be the Chinese station at Woosung or some ship at sea—began breaking in with signals, thus interfering with the demonstration.

AGAIN TONIGHT

Mr. Osborn announced that he would get in communication with every wireless station within sending distance of Shanghai last night and today, and asserted he was confident that there would be no interference tonight.

Tonight's program will be fully up to the excellent programs that have been given on the two nights the radio has been in operation in China. Bertie Heyes, famous Palace Hotel Trio, which plays at the Palace during dining hours and at tea-time, will play several classical and jazz selections at 8:45 o'clock, and Mr. A. E. Raggett, who starred as 'Tom Jones' in the opera produced at the Lyceum Theater last night by the A.D.C. will sing two of the solos that have the part of 'Tom Jones' famous.

Mr. Raggett has a powerful baritone voice and before coming to Shanghai was with several well known opera companies in England. His singing is known in Shanghai through his appearance as soloist with the Municipal Orchestra, and his excellent work in the A.D.C. show.

DOMINO'S STORIES

In addition to the musical selections 'Domino,' of THE CHINA

Tonight's Radio Program

The broadcasting program tonight will begin at 8 o'clock and continue until a few minutes after 9 o'clock and will consist of news bulletins, musical selections and other features, as follows:

8 p.m. Phonograph selections to allow all stations to tune in.

8:15 News bulletins broadcasted by THE CHINA PRESS.

8:30 Vocal solo by Mr. A. E. Raggett, "Tom Jones" in the A.D.C. opera of the same name at the Lyceum.

8:45 The Palace Hotel Trio.

9 p.m. Domino of THE CHINA PRESS with a number of funny stories.

The program for tomorrow night's concert will be published in THE CHINA PRESS exclusively tomorrow.

NEAR EAST PACT TO BE GIVEN TO TURKS THIS WEEK

Allies Decide To Hasten Conference At Lausanne

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Lusanne, Jan. 23.—The allies have decided to hasten the Near East conference and are planning to present a draft of the treaty to the Turks before the end of the week.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 23.—At the close of the discussions of the Territorial and Military Commission of the Lausanne Conference today, at which Marquis Curzon presided, M. Bompard, the French delegate, declared that Ismet Pasha had not spoken of Syria, which was a clear sign that the frontiers were considered settled by the Angora agreement. The French delegate considered the British proposal with regard to Mosul extremely liberal and supported it as did also Marquis Garroni.

(Reuter's Service)

Lausanne, Jan. 23.—Notwithstanding the renewed appeals of the Allies, Turkey refused to reconsider her decision, upon which Marquis Curzon announced his intention personally to submit the Mosul issue to the League of Nations.

(Reuter's Service)

Lausanne, Jan. 23.—At the plenary session of the Conference today Marquis Curzon proposed that the Mosul question should be referred to the League of Nations, intimating that Great Britain was ready to abide by the result.

At the resumption of the sitting, this afternoon Ismet Pasha declared that Turkey would not accept arbitration regarding the disposal of any portion of Turkish territory. He proposed a plebiscite for Mosul.

Marquis Curzon rejected the proposal, saying that the case of Upper Silesia, in spite of the plebiscite, eventually had to come before the League. Hence, he declared, it was better immediately to refer the question of Mosul to the League.

Getting Better

Better news of the results of the second night's radio broadcasting was heard late last night when the French wireless station, which courteously remained silent during the program, reported that they had heard the concert almost perfectly.

Announcements and news bulletins were extremely distinct, and the music, for the most part, was excellently received.

Passengers on the President Madison of the Admiral-Oriental Line danced to the music of the radiophone last night as the liner was nearing Woosung. A wireless message from the steamer expressed delight at the clarity and modulation and thanked THE CHINA PRESS station for an excellent entertainment.

As a special feature of the Rotary Club meeting today Mr. Earl Currens, leader of the Astor orchestra, will play the piano at the broadcasting station and lead the singing of the Rotarians at the Union Club.

Mr. Claude McGuire, the Astor saxaphonist, will also play a saxaphone solo, "Machusia."

Press, will tell a number of his best stories. As a storyteller 'Domino' is without equal in Shanghai and has been a great favorite at a number of club smokers and other functions where good stories, well told, are appreciated. He will tell a number of new ones and several old favorites via wireless tonight.

THE CHINA PRESS will also broadcast a number of news bulletins from all over the globe, as well as local news of interest, and a number of new phonograph records will be played.

Last night Earl Currens' Astor House jazz band played a number of their best dance selections for the dancers at the Astor to 'dance by radio,' but because of the interference dancing was interrupted. The music, when not interrupted, was splendid.

Larry, architect of Chin Chin, the pagoda of piffle, gave the column which appears on the editoral page today on the program, but the interruption occurred in the middle of his effusion and the 'column' was not as clear as it appears printed.

The news bulletins and phonograph selections were alternately good and bad.

Numerous inquiries have been received by the Radio Editor of THE CHINA PRESS concerning radio sets and the installation of sets. At the present time stocks of sets are very scarce in Shanghai but the Electrical Equipment Company, 50 Nanking Road, have a few, and Mr. E. G. Osborn of the Radio Corporation of China on the top floor of the Dollar Building on Canton Road is able to give technical information and advise in purchases of sets.

Edward Evans and Sons also have a complete line of technical and instructive books on radio, specialising in radio for beginners.

Essen, Jan. 23.—The passive resistance of the German postal workers is exemplified by the decision of the telephonists to disconnect the telephones used by the French Mission.

The French have occupied the telephone and cable room in the Essen post office, with the object of preventing tampering with the wires in the event of a strike.

The return of the Dortmund strikers to work has considerably eased the railway position but traffic is still uncertain. The railway mangement has forbidden its employees to facilitate the passage of trains operated by French drivers, of whom a number have been drafted to the Ruhr to replace the recalcitrant Germans.

The position in the mines is still one of watchfulness. In only one mine have the men actually quitted work. The others are awaiting the result of the trial of the mine directors which takes place at Mayence tomorrow.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Jan. 23.—It is reported from Essen that the employees at the Stinnes mines announced a strike today owing to the French General Commanding at Duesseldorf not receiving a deputation of protest against the arrest of the manager, Herr Spindler.

(Reuter's Service)

Essen, Jan. 23.—It is reported from Hamborn that, owing to the failure of the efforts of the Workesr' Council of the Thyssen mines for the immediate release of Herr Fritz Thyssen, officials and miners struck this morning.

Over 100,000 men are affected.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 23.—The delicacy of the situation created at Cologne by the French action against the Germans in the British zone is illustrated by a telegram from Reuter's correspondent at Cologne, stating that, although the deportation order by the Inter-Allied High Commission against Herr von Lanzenauer, the President of the local Finance Office, for refusing to act under the recent ordinances, was withdrawn on the representations of the British authorities, the French authorities arrested him at midnight and conveyed him to Bonn.

British officers were present at the arrest in accordance with the customary formality and Herr von Lanzenauer asked them whether they assented to the arrest. They replied that they were acting in accordance with orders.

The correspondent says regarding this: "that the British either must requiesce or withdraw."

Borah In Fierce Attack On French

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Jan. 23.—Senator Borah, who is a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, in a long statement made today, fiercely attacks the French action in the Ruhr as ruthless militarism, a violation of the Armistice and of the Versailles Treaty and an offence against humanity.

The senator criticises the State Department's policy of silence and inactivity.

He urges the United States formally to protest against the action, which, he declares, will not bring France compensation but will bring supreme suffering not only on Germany but on the whole of Europe and incalculable loss to the Americans.

Paris Refuses To Accept Berlin Note

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Jan. 23.—The French Foreign Office has returned the German Note protesting against the shooting of a German by a French sentry at Langendreer, saying that it is impossible to accept a Note couched in such terms.

The French reply to the German protest against the arrest of the Ruhr industrialists maintains that all the measures taken by the occupation authorities are completely legal, being the result of infringements of the Versailles Treaty.

The French Government reserve the right to take all sanctions necessitated by the attitude of the German Government, German officials and nationals.

POLICE HUNT FOR MISSING WIFE OF MURDERED MAN

Ricsha Coolie Also Departs From Scene Of Gruesome Crime

Police today are searching for Wong Kwo-ez, an amah, as the discovery of the body of her husband in an alleyway off Chapoo Road on Tuesday.

The murdered husband, Wong Dzung-shing, was a wharf coolie employed at Pootung, and since the body was discovered by a passerby who stumbled over it on the flagstones, the wife, and Ah Nyi, a ricsha coilie, have been missing.

Examination of the body revealed that it was literally stabbed full of holes and the man's hands were cut to ribbons as though he had attempted to save himself by grasping the ornamental sword used, but had been unable to hang on to the instrument.

The murder evidently occurred in the residence of a Japanese named T. Shimizu, who, however, is now in Japan, and the house is occupied by another Japanese, S. Tsuda. The body was carried into the alley after the man had been killed in the house.

These days much attention is being paid to Coue and his teachings. Whether or not one agrees with all the doctrine, the central principle that the imagination is more potent than the will in producing action is significant for every saver.

Instead of determining, "I will save, I will save", picture the results to be accomplished by saving—a home of your own, a motor car, financial independence travel—and pretty soon you will find that you are putting away a portion of your income toward the realisation of your idea.

Then you can repeat from a financial standpoint the Coue formula of

Press Deplores Assassination By Woman Anarchist

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 23.—The press is unanimous in deploring the assassination of M. Marius Plateau and emphasises the contrast between the characters of the victim and his assassin, Germaine Berton.

M. Plateau, a sergeant in the reserve at the declaration of war, volunteered before his class was called up. He took part in the first operations on the Marne and during the rest of the campaign conducted himself with a heroism which earned him several mentions in despatches, the Medaille Militaire and the Legion d'Honneur.

Germaine Berton is a militant anarchist, contributing to several libertist papers. She has been several times convicted for breaches of common law and was implicated in several burglaries. She was also suspected of being concerned in the attempt of which the United States Ambassador in Paris was the victim.

She declared that she was living on subsidies granted by the anarchist party.

Yesterday several revolver shots were fired by an unknown person at an American liaison officer near the Belgian headquarters. The officer was not hit.

G.$9,300,000,000 Life Insurance During 1922

MORE than nine thousand millions of dollars of life insurance was taken out by the American people during 1922. These figures are an increase over 1921 of almost 7 per cent and bring the total life insurance of "legal reserve" companies in the United States well beyond fifty billion gold dollars. This year will probably see an even larger increase.

THESE are stupendous amounts. They form one of the chief explanations of the great advances in education and of the high degree of individual and national prosperity in America. The fact that 85% of all estates in that country are from life insurance speaks for itself.

WILL you leave an estate sufficient to care for your family as long as they live?

No Political Loans Or Arms For Peking, Says American Chamber Here

Policy Of American Government On Financing And Aiming Chinese Militarists Set Forth In Reply To Local Chinese Chamber

The American stand on the questions of importation of arms into China and of loans for the Peking government was set forth clearly in a letter addressed to the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce by the American Chamber of Commerce of Shanghai. The message was sent in response to a declaration made by the special committee on disarmament, constitution and finance of the Chinese Chamber, urging the foreign chambers to refrain from supplying the Peking Government and Chinese militarists with either arms or loans.

The text of the letter of the American Chamber of Commerce, which has just been released by the Chinese chamber, is as follows:

"We are in receipt of your letter of January 10 stating that the Governments of friendly powers have passed a resolution that before the reunification of China has become a fait accompli they would contribute to the removal of the causes of dissension in this country by undertaking:

"First, to retrain from concluding with the Chinese Government any loan of a political nature;

"Secondly to prohibit the sale of ammunitions and weapons of war to China.

"In reference to your request that our chamber exert its influence with the financial and mercantile organisations of American nationality by pursuading them to do their utmost in the direction of complete fulfilment of these sound pledges, we will state that the American Congress nearly a year ago adopted a resolution prohibiting the export of munitions and weapons of war to China. Since the passage of that resolution American officials have done everything possible to see that it is carried out. Recent references in the press to the seizure by American officials of arms and munitions of war intended for China should show you that everything possible has been done to carry out the good faith of American governmental regulation. A few weeks ago the officials of San Francisco seized a large quantity of arms which was being smuggled to a Chinese owned ship apparently for sale in China, and there is now a case pending in the U. S. Court wherein an American citizen is being charged with attempting to import a shipment of airplanes into Central China.

"From the standpoint of financial advances to China of a political nature the American Government has been equally emphatic. The International Banking Consortium agreement signed on October 15, 1920, was intended primarily to prevent the advance of political loans in China that would tend to build up spheres of influence on the part of outside nations making the loans. The new Consortium was formed upon the invitation of President Wilson and a careful reading of the correspondence, which appears on pages 324 to 361 of the China Year Book 1921-22, will show this to be a fact. The Consortium has now been in existence for a period of two years and three months and since the signing of the agreement no loan of any kind has been extended to any Chinese government or faction for any purpose. As long as the Consortium remains in existence or as long as American bankers are members of it we believe you may feel assured that no loans of a political character will be advanced to China by American financial institutions.

"The Consortium is to remain in force for a period of five years.

"In addition to the Consortium, it may also be of interest to you to know that immediately following the Washington Conference last year the Secretary of State requested American banks and financial institutions to report to the Government any foreign loans under contemplation. The reason for this policy is conveyed in the following paragraphs copied from the January 13 issue of the Weekly Review of the Far East, on page 253, published here in Shanghai. This statement was made by a member of the State Department and appears herewith.

"When Uncle Sam's people inform him of loans they wish to make in foreign lands, he usually ascertains—through his minister and consuls—that such a loan will not find its way into the hands of a rebel faction seeking to gain control of the local government, or that it is not to be dissipated in some doubtful venture. It is a general rule now that when foreigners come seeking loans, whether for the use of a government or individuals, it must be clear for what it is desired, before Uncle Sam will pass upon it.

"Today it is the practice of American banking houses to inform the government of applications for loans made to them from abroad, and practically no foreign securities are offered for sale in the States—on a big scale—without at least learning whether Uncle Sam has any objection to offer from the viewpoint of public policy.

"You will note from the above that it would be very difficult for any American financial institution to make a political loan to China in view of the present policy of the American Government.

"It may also be of interest to you to know that since the Armistice on November 11, 1919 American bankers have invested practically two billion dollars abroad in about 24 different nations, and of this amount only eleven million gold dollars has been invested in China. This amount is now in default, as you probably are aware, and neither principal nor interest has been paid for practically two years. In addition to the default of the Chinese Government on these loans the Ministry of Communications has also defaulted to American manufacturers upon equipment supplied to the amount of fifty million dollars, Chinese currency.

"A consideration of the foregoing information as well as the action of the U. S. Government should provide the assurance which you desire—that there is very little danger of American financial institutions advancing money for political or any other purpose in China, at least until conditions have become more stabilised in this country."

Americans Invent Improved Bullet

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Jan' 23.—Experts of the War Department are reported to have invented a rifle bullet with a range 1,400 yards longer than the present bullets. The curve of the trajectory shows a decrease of thirty percent.

The boat-shaped back of the bullet helps to overcome atmospheric resistance, enabling a marksman to make as many hits on a six-inch target as formerly on a twenty-inch target at the same range.

It is believed that this invention will place American infantry musketery on a new standard.

7 Refugee Ships Are Still Missing

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Jan. 24.—No word has come from the seven Russian ships en route from Shanghai to join the five others which arrived at the Philippine Islands last Saturday. It is believed that an accident of some kind has befallen the ships which are known to be in a bad condition. Shipping men believe that some of the ships became disabled and the others are towing them which would make progress slow.

The weather in the China Sea has been good lately, no storms being reported.

Admiral Stark with the five ships are supposed to have left Bolinao today for the Mariveles Quarantine Station in Manila Bay where they should arrive on Friday.

Governor-General Woods expects to visit Mariveles probably on Saturday where he will confer with Admiral Stark with regard to the final disposition of the refugees. Admiral Stark is said to be desirous of putting the ships into the Philippine Island trade but this requires an act of Legislature and probably the consent of the United States Government.

EMPLOYERS GIVE SUPPORT TO CHILD LABOR ABOLITION

Legislation Already Introduced In House Of Representatives

That both foreign and Chinese employers of labor are in favor of the abolition of child labor in factories and mills is indicated in correspondence published in the Municipal Gazette today. The correspondence was the result of a letter sent by the Council to Mr. E. F. Mackay, chairman of the Employers' Federation, following an interview between the Chairman of the Council and Miss Agatha Harrison, of the Y.W.C.A.

The Employers' Federation expressed hearty sympathy with the idea of placing an age limit on child laborers and its committee met with the committee of the Cotton Mill Owners' Association of China and discussed the matter with them. It was agreed that legislation must come in the first instance from the Chinese and that it might be suggested that from the point of view of the foreign employer legislation was indicated and that educational facilities for the children of mill operatives should be considered in conjunction with their non-employment.

Letters to this effect were sent to the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce and to the Chinese Cotton Mill Owners' Association, and these organisations, replying in sympathetic vein point out that such legislation as was suggested has already been introduced into the House of Representatives in Peking.

The Chamber of Commerce also stated that it had despatched a telegram to the House of Representatives urging that immediate steps be taken for the early passage of the bills in question. Wires were also sent to the Ministry of Interior and the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce.

JAPAN TO QUIT SAGHALIN "SOON AS POSSIBLE"

Premier Also Says Tokio Will Respect Arms Pact

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Jan. 23.—In the Diet, which re-opened today, interpellated by the leader of the Opposition, Viscount Kato, the Premier, Admiral Baron Kato, replied that the Government were doing their utmost to evacuate Saghalin as early as possible. Though no formal negotiations had occurred "an understanding exists between Great Britain, America and Japan regarding the steps to be taken" in the event of the other Powers not ratifying the Washington Agreement.

The Premier expressed regret that France and Italy had not ratified the Naval Treaty up to the present, adding that in the event of their final non-ratification "it would not be impossible for Britain, America and Japan to reach a certain agreement nor would Japan fail in respect of the spirit of the Washington Conference in naval adjustment though the planned scrapping and suspension of construction might be postponed."

The Premier answered another questioner that the Government, in framing the Budget, gave all attention to possible retrenchment, particularly in regard to the naval appropriations in compliance with the spirit of the Washington Agreement.

Dr. Sze To Quit As Foreign Minister

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 23.—Dr. Alfred Sze, Minister of Foreign Affairs, who recently tendered his resignation on account of illness, is determined to quit. Doctor Sze suffers from an attack of influenza and has been ordered by his physicians to rest for two months.

President Li Yuan-hung and Premier Chang Shou-tseng have both sent delegates to exhort Doctor Sze to withdraw his resignation. A mandate will soon be issued granting him a month's leave of absence and appointing Mr. Shen Shao-lin, Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, to act temporarily.

According to a report, Doctor Sze is desirous of resuming his ministerial post at Washington, finding it hard to work together with his Mandarin colleagues or to deal with the rival factions in Parliament.

CONFERENCE ON RUBBER TO FASE PRESSURE, BELIEF

Anglo-American Parleys To Be Held Soon In America

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Jan. 23.—Official quarters expect that the conference of representatives of the American and British rubber industries will result in an agreement greatly easing the conditions in the industry.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 23.—Mr. P. H. Lockhart, Chairman of the Rubber Manufacturers' Association of Manchester, is going to America on Thursday to consult American manufacturers with regard to restriction.

In an interview, published in the Manchester Guardian, Mr. Lockhart expressed the opinion that the rise in the price of rubber was largely due to gambling. The chief concern of the manufacturers was to obtain a steady, level price. The restriction law ought to be modified and made more elastic to provide for larger and quicker releases of rubber. There ought to be no restrictions after rubber reached 1s. 6d.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 23.—Interviewed by the Evening Standard with regard to the rubber manufacturers' objections to restriction, Sir Frank Swettenham, former Governor of the Straits Settlements, said that Eastern Governments were not in the least likely to alter the scheme to suit the manufacturers, who during the past two years, when they had the opportunity of purchasing rubber below the cost of production, had been indifferent to the fate of the producer, threatened with ruin, and who now were unreasonably complaining that the producer at length was able to work at a very moderate profit. He emphasised that £100,000,000 of British capital invested in rubber threatened to be absolutely lost until restriction was enforced. The question of gambling did not concern the producer. Anything like 2s. 6d. a pound was a moderate price for first-grade rubber. The consumer did not benefit by the fall in price.

Shippers Aroused By Freight Cuts

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 24.—The Commonwealth Government Line freight reductions are the subject of lively debates in shipping circles and are regarded as marking the beginning of a freight-war between the Government and conference lines. It has been suggested that Australian political considerations are behind the reductions but this is denied, Mr. Larkin, the Governor of the Commonwealth Line, declaring that the cuts were made without consulting the Government.

While a number of merchants are ready to profit by the reductions, the conference lines are stated to have received assurance of support from some of the largest shippers.

Italy To Fight Communist Rebels

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 23.—The Rome correspondent of the Temps states that the Government is continuing to fight against the propagation of false news, some of which is inspired by systematic opposition but some too by financial speculation. The speculators do not even hesitate at going against the interests of their own country. It is recalled that from the Italian point of view and after the British note on Signor Mussolini's plan the occupation of the Ruhr could not longer be avoided and that the Italian Government was absolutely in accord with the French Government in standing on the terms of the Versailles Treaty.

The Temps reports that Signor Mussolini has forbidden a meeting organised by a Communist Deputy to provoke difficulties and publicly referred to its promoter, Signor Eboldi, as "a voluntary subject of a foreign country." This met, which at the same time is aimed at all other Communist Deputies and organisers acting under orders from Moscow, has scored an enormous success among the public and particularly among the workers.

"Tom Jones" Delights A Capacity Audience At Lyceum Reopening

—they certainly bunched together and when the winning post was neared they were so well crowded that neither judge was able to give any other verdict that "Dead Heat" and, in the words of Midwood, "D. G."

Where shall I begin? Everything was fine. I would like to take every member of the cast—it numbered over seventy—and I would suggest that you look at the program that is printed above and read each name. Please take your hat off to each. Maskee if your arm aches Damme, my hands are sore, why shouldn't your arms get a little exercise?

"Reggie" Wingrove! I really beg your pardon sir—I should say, Mr. W. R. Wingrove, but everyone seems to call you "Reggie," even our friend "Tom Jones"—so let me be familiar for the nonce. You, I am told, are the originator of this show. You got the cast together. You gave them merry H-e-double-L if they didn't turn up, and if they didn't sing up. Well, sir, they did both last night. You had a first class little pack. You gave them a great lead. They followed and everyone was a winner.' Sincere congrats. Your dear old Dad will be pleased to see that "Reggie" had followed in his footsteps and has filled them so well.

And Jack Raynes! He had the music in hand. He made those who could speak sing. He took an orchestra composed of those musical Heyes Brothers and amateurs and welded them so well together that they gave promise that with a little more experience they would form an A.D.C. orchestra that would prove as successful as the Club itself. Thank you, Jack. Fine work and appreciated.

But it is nearly one o'clock. The editor threatens to close down upon me in a few minutes so I must get along and say just what I think about some of the cast. Please remember that everyone of the seventy-odd were D. G.

Mrs. Isenman. She was "Sophia." She was delightful. "Tom Jones" fell in love with her when he had a broken arm. The audience fell in love with her wholeheartedly at the rise of the curtain and remained so until the rag dropped upon her final song. That little lady is wonderful. This is no fulsome flattery. "Sophia" could appear on any stage in the world and would be more than welcome. In "Tom Jones" Mrs. Isenman evidently got the absolute atmosphere of the piece and she certainly put it over the footlights. But a little more later about this charming lady. And honour must go to "Honour." I was simply delighted with the portrayal that Mrs. Chris Wingrove gave of that pert maid—"Honour." She sang, spoke and danced herself into our hearts. The hearty applause that greeted her every effort must have been some little recompense to her for her hard work. When she sang about that green ribbon we all just wanted to follow the Irishman in "The Wearing of the Green." Good Stuff, D.G. (Apologies to Midwood):

"Tom Jones" and Raggett were one and the same person. I don't wonder that the lady of quality was keen on him. That chap Raggett has a great voice. Plenty of tone. A big range. He has a fine presence. He acts well. Just a little word in his ear. Enunciate! Enunciate! At times we had a little difficulty in hearing just what nice things you were saying to the maidens who were all over you. Again, in the words of my friend, D. G.

Just a minute or more Boss. I must say a word about Maitland and Donne. Maitland was "Squire Weston." I don't hesitate to say that the character study that he gave us last night was as good as anything I have seen for a very long time. I wish he had had a little more to sing. He did sing and sang well. He had a lot to say and we heard it all. Quite one of the tit-bits of the show.

I do hope Donne finds "Lizzie" before tomorrow night. What will he be without his little leech? Donne was in great form. He does enjoy himself. He does give enjoyment to all the rest of us on the dark side of the footlights. He danced. He sang. He mimicked. He did everything that a good comedian would do. Donne! You are awarded with the order of "D. G." If your are not careful you will get the "V.D.G."

Just another minute Boss! Mrs. Stewardson had quite a nice little bit to do. She was a lady of high degree. She was. She dressed the part. She spoke beautifully. She sang well. Why on earth "Tom Jones" didn't fall for her the Lord only knows. Another D. G.

All right. I'll stop and carry on about the rest of the show later. Well done everyone! Good Old A.D.C., and to all D.G.

Arrest Japanese In Kobe For Robbery Here

The third Japanese who was implicated in the robbery of two exchange shop assistants in a daring daylight automobile holdup on Avenue Haig near the Del Monte Cafe over a month ago has been arrested in Kobe, according to information received by the Municipal Police yesterday.

Two of the Japanese who are alleged to have committed the robbery were arrested shortly afterwards and both were identified by the shop assistants. The third man, said to have been the hotel 'runner' who acted as the decoy to get the shop assistants in the auto with $1,000 in change, escaped.

FOUR BOXING TITLES LOST LAST YEAR

Defeat Of Carpentier By Siki Biggest 1922 Sensation

BUFF DETHRONED

Jack Britton, Favorite In Fight With Walker, Lost Crown

Four champions were separated from their titles during a rather tempestuous year in boxing, Johnny Buff being a victim of two major operations. The reigning sensation of 1922 in the fistic world, however, was the stunning knockout of Georges Carpentier by Battling Siki, a half savage from Senegal, in a bout for the world's light heavyweight championship. The so-called "orchid man" was a 10-to-1 shot before the bout, but Siki led all the way after the second round and, scored a clear knockout in the sixth.

Charges and counter-charges were aired after the affair, each accusing the other of foul tactics but the fight was given a clean bill.

This was only one of many bouts in which form turned handsprings. A case in point was the Mickey Walker-Jack Britton fight, in which the welterweight title changed hands. Britton was an odds-on favorite until a short time before the men entered the ring, when the betting shifted suddenly to Walker.

WALKER WINS EASILY

Because of this the New York State Athletic Commission called off all bets, an unprecedented action so far as modern pugilism is concerned. Walker easily earned the decision, buffeting Britton all over the ring during the last nine rounds.

At the start of the year Buff was the proud owner of the world's bantamweight and the American flyweight titles, and at the end he owns neither. Joe Lynch deprived him of the bantamweight belt by scoring a knockout in the thirteenth round, and a little brown man from the rice paddles of the Philippines subsequently came along to flatten Buff for the long count in the tenth round, thus acquiring the flyweight title. The little brown man was Pancho Villa, unknown and unsung twelve months before.

TUNNEY SUCCUMBS

Another dethroned champion was Gene Tunney. In an unguarded moment Gene allowed himself to be inveigled into a match with Harry Greb, with the American light heavyweight title at stake, and Greb flailed his way to an easy victory at the end of fifteen rounds. At the end Tunney's face had been reduced to human hamburger.

Jack Dempsey signed an agreement to meet Harry Wills for the heavyweight title, at the insistence of the New York State Athletic Commission, but nothing has come of it. The Commission had set a precedent in this respect by suspending Johnny Kilbane and Johnny Wilson for failure to accept challenges for their respective featherweight and middleweight titles. Both championships were declared vacated, but this decision was not accepted in other States.

LEONARD ACTIVE

Benny Leonard had his most active year since falling heir to the lightweight crown. This he defended successfully against Rocky Kansas, Ever Hammer and Lew Tendler, the last named collaborating in the greatest lightweight attraction since Gans first met Nelson.

At the end of twelve no-decision rounds Leonard was awarded the unofficial verdict by a great majority of the critics, although Tendler had the champion in distress in the eighth round. A crowd of nearly 80,000 witnessed the bout, the greatest turnout since the memorable affair between Dempsey and Carpentier.

TIENTSIN DEFEATS U. S. MARINE TEAM IN HOCKEY GAMES

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 21.—Peking enjoyed a festival of ice hockey this week-end when three matches were played at the American Legation Guard ring between representatives of the capital and of Tientsin.

The first match was played on Saturday evening when the Tientsin Ice Hockey Team defeated the American Marines by eight goals to three, Manley scoring four of the visitors' total.

In the second match Tientsin defeated Peking Ice Hockey Team by four goals to one. The contest was a draw up to the close of third quarter, the score being one each, but in the last quarter Tientsin added three points. An unfortunate feature of this match was that Bridge sustained a nasty injury to his eye and had to leave the ice.

Perhaps the best contested match of the trio was that which took place between the juniors of the two cities. Time was called with the score standing one each. Extra time was played, but it was not until the fourth five minute period of extra time that Tientsin snatched the winning point. The players returned to Tientsin this afternoon.

MEDICAL MISSION OF LEAGUE WILL MAKE STUDY HERE

Experts Now In Singapore; Council Will Aid

The Municipal Council will lend every possible assistance in the investigation of epidemic diseases to be made here shortly by the League of Nations Medical Mission, according to correspondence with the Senior Consul and the Peking Diplomatic Body published in today's Municipal Gazette.

In this connection the Commissioner of Public Health is communicating with Dr. Norman White, one of the two members of the Mission, who is at present in Singapore. The primary objects of the Mission are the collection of information regarding the local incidence of epidemic diseases, more especially those of international importance, in the principal ports of the Far East and to ascertain and study the measures which are taken, or needed, to prevent the transmission of these diseases to other ports.

Dr. White, who is a member of the Health Section of the League of Nations, left Marseilles on November 3 last and took part in the League of Red Cross Societies Conference at Bangkok. He was to proceed then to Singapore, where he was to be joined by the other members of the Mission and begin his studies. His itinerary includes visits to Bombay, Calcutta, Rangoon, Colombo, Singapore, Batavia, Bangkok, Saigon, Hanoi and Haiphong, Hongkong, Formosa, Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama and possibly the Philippines.

ACTION AGAINST VISCOUNT DI VILLA AGAIN ADJOURNED

Important Witness, Five Times Summoned, Fails To Appear

Failure of an important witness, a Japanese subject, to appear, though the Mixed Court registrar has five times requested the Japanese authorities to ask him to do so, led to another adjournment yesterday in the Lire 6,500,000 suit brought by the liquidators of the Far Eastern Bank against the Viscount E. M. di Villa.

When the case was called yesterday before Assessor Ferrajolo and Magistrate Li the Assessor remarked that it seemed the Court could not get the witness, Nien, to appear. Dr. O. Fischer, appearing for the liquidators, asked the Court to call to the attention of the Japanese authorities the fact that the man did not obey the Consulate's commands.

Mr. J. G. Priestwood, appearing for the defendant, asked that the case be adjourned until after February 1 and stated that it was essential that Nien be present to testify. The adjournment was then ordered.

Harbour Notification No. 2 of 1923

Dredging Operations in Whangpoo River

Astraea Channel

Referring to Harbour Notifications Nos. 14 and 15 of 1922, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the dredging operations at Black Point Reach will shortly be completed, and that on or about the 29th instant the dredger will be moved to the Astraea Channel where dredging between Buoys Nos. 1 and 2 will be commenced.

Whenever the dredger is at work or in a position for working in the channel, symbols will be shown from a staff erected on the platform over the bucket tumbler, or where they can be best seen, to indicate the dredger's position relative to the area to be dredged as under:—

ONE DIAMOND: to show that the dredger is in the centre of the area.

ONE BALL: to show that she is in a position to the north of the centre.

TWO BALLS: to show that she is in a position to the south of the centre

The dredger is usually moored with six anchors, one ahead and one astern, and two breast anchors on each side. The positions of these anchors will generally be shown by small white painted cask buoys, but as these are likely to be carried away or swept under by the current, absolute reliance cannot be placed on their always being seen. The buoys will be moored with the shortest lengths of chain practicable.

Between sunset and sunrise the dredger will not operate; she will then exhibit the usual anchor lights in accordance with the international "Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea".

The attention of navigators is drawn to Clause 16 of the Harbour Regulations for the Port of Shanghai which provides that:

"Vessels when passing conservancy works in course of construction or conservancy craft engaged in dredging, etc., shall proceed at slow speed".

H. E. Hillman,
Harbour Master Officiating.

MR. KLIENE IS SPEAKER AT Y.M.H.A. MEETING

Mr. Charles Kliene read an interesting paper on Madame Roland yesterday evening at the Young Men's Hebrew Association before a large audience. Rabbi W. Hirsch presided.

Madame Roland was the central figure of the Girondin party during the French Revolution. Mr. Kliene traced her story from an early age when, as little Marie Jeanne Philipon of the jeweller's shop, she had, at the age of nine, already commenced to study Plutarch's Lives. In his biographical sketch Mr. Kliene led his audience through vicissitudes of Madame Roland's short and ill-fated life, which was brought to a close at the guillotine during the Reign of Terror. She was one of the noblest figures of the revolutionary period and one of the revolutionary period and one of womanhood in the history of the French nation. She was not only the spirit but the soul of the party to which she belonged.

The rulers of France and the privileged classes had sown the wind and did not begin to reap the whirlwind till July 14, 1789, when Paris rose and stormed the Bastille. It was then that the French took things in their own hands. Madame Roland met her fate at the age of 39 on November 9, 1793.

Geddes Protests Outside Buying

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 23.—Contending that there is a growing tendency to place national and municipal contracts abroad, Sir Eric Geddes, the President of the Federation of British Industries, has written to Mr. Bonar Law urging the Government to refuse to sanction loans or expenditure unless British plant and materials are specified.

He declared that British industry can now give earlier and more certain delivery than the majority of foreign manufacturers, while the differences in price are substantially less where they have not altogether disappeared.

Obata Protests Kiaochow Delays

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 23.—M. Obata, Japanese Minister, has addressed a despatch to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, protesting against the prolonged absence of Gen. Hsiung Ping-chi, Director-General of the Kiaochow Administration, and the Associate Director-General from Tsingtao.

The despatch declares that this has unnecessarily delayed the settlement of the details in connection with the transfer of Tsingtao. The Japanese request the presence of responsible Chinese officials in Tsingtao so that the remaining issues may promptly be attended to.

General Hsiung is now in Paotingfu where he has gone on some political mission.

INTERNATIONAL FAMINE RELIEF BOARD MEETS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hankow, January 19.—The first annual meeting of the China International Famine Relief Commission closed its two days' conference yesterday, January 18. Tuchun Hsiao Yao-nan, Military Governor of Hupeh, who opened the meeting on Wednesday with an address of welcome, closed it last night with a dinner to the delegates.

While the routine portion of the proceedings consisted of reports upon past activities and the presentation of the financial condition of the various constituent societies, the greater portion of the deliberations dealt with the future program. According to the reports rendered, the bulk of relief during the past year has been given in exchange for labor upon public works.

Reports from Chihli and Hupeh told of loans made for various relief projects secured by land deeds, general taxation and other revenues, which loans have been repaid during the year and indicate that the method offers considerable possibilities of expansion. As a result, the Commission by resolution adopted, as an addition to its guiding principle of action, that future relief should be in the nature of loans rather than gifts, and that the relief projects should be of such a nature that the repayment could be collected out of the benefit accruing therefrom. Local taxation for irrigation and flood prevention to be undertaken under the purview of the International Famine Relief Commission was considered as a possibility. Inadequate measures were devised to popularise the subject and the methods to be used.

The Conference also decided to improve its possibilities of usefulness by standardising the organisation of the constituent societies and promoting an annual roll-call by which to enroll as many of the Chinese people as possible as members. With a regular income from memberships, with funds rendered permanent by the device of putting them out on the loan basis instead of as gifts, and by supplementing these funds by specific taxes for conservancy purposes, immense possibilities for famine prevention, economic improvement, and reinvigorating public life in China are unfolded.

Famine conditions in southern Shansi and the imminence of such conditions in Western Honan and in Hupeh were reported. The seriousness of the situation in Chekiang was also detailed, but the subject of appropriations for these provinces was referred to the Executive Committee of the Commission to be handled at a future date.

The following officers of the Commission were elected for the coming year.

Chairman—M. T. Liang.

Vice-Chairman—Dr. G. Douglas Gray

Treasurers—C. H. Lauru and Admiral Tsai T'in-kan.

Executive Secretary—W. H. Mallory.

Assistant Executive Secretary—Y. S. Djang.

SHANGHAI, JANUARY 25, 1923

The Business Situation

THE basic conditions that are likely to govern largely the trend of business in Shanghai, whether upward or downward, during the first half of the year are usually pretty well established by the end of January. Consequently, the business world takes its bearings at this time rather more definitely than at any other. Of course, all calculations may at any time be upset by sudden convulsions such as a new war in the North of China or other serious national or international disturbances, but with crop yields and other seasonal factors duly appraised, the student of affairs is able to forecast with some degree of confidence the probable direction and force of the business current.

Shanghai is doing a fairly large volume of business, and general trade conditions show material improvement over the position reported last month. It looks as if 1923 will be a year of improvement, and that there will be gains in various branches of business during the next six months. Further than that little can be said, for the best informed judges of prevailing conditions decline to predict beyond six months.

There is good ground for the complaint of many exporters in Shanghai of the extremely high rates prevailing on the market for many of the products in demand by countries abroad. The Chinese farmer is becoming each year a better business man, and he has much to be thankful for in that his financial position is better than it was a couple of years ago. But there is a good deal to be said for the Chinese farmer, as he is often hard hit by the drought and famine and the depredations of bandits. He is a very important business man, and greater credit facilities should be given to him. There is every reason why he should be supported wholeheartedly by the Chinese Government and made to function more satisfactorily. It is a matter for regret that while almost all civilised countries recognise the importance of the farmer the Chinese Government has shown little interest in improving his lot and his crops.

The Chinese farmer in recent months has obtained prices for his products that he never dreamt of. Many of the Chinese silk men have made fortunes this season. Unheard of prices have prevailed while for almost all the other products fancy prices have been demanded and paid. The cotton growers are happy; the price of Chinese raw cotton, since the opening of the season has been ascending. Shrewd manager that he is, the Chinese cotton grower is now sending down less tuft to the Shanghai market. He has figured out that large quantities of his cotton has been finding a ready market in Japan, and knows that there is likely to be a world shortage in the staple, and also is aware of the fact that both American and Indian cottons are expensive. Supplies of raw cotton are therefore arriving in very much lessened quantities. There is thus no glut and he can afford to ask higher prices.

The same tactics have been adopted by the other agriculturists. They have been sticklers for prices that they asked, and it has been difficult to get them to make real concessions. They have been fortunate so far in getting their prices. The markets abroad that buy China products eventually realised the futility of attempting to force the Chinese holder of grains to budge very much from his values, and as soon as Exchange happened to take a slight turn for the better the European and American buyers got in and paid a little more and secured their requirements. Besides, there has been a good deal of competition by some exporting houses.

This prosperity should result in greater buying by the Chinese of such luxuries as manufactured cotton yarn and piece goods, etc.

This movement has not yet set in, and it is quite probable that the insecure state of the country is frightening buyers. Nevertheless there is a much better feeling all round. The chief underlying factors in the situation are well-known to all business men in Shanghai, and their consideration can lead only to the conclusion that while business in most lines is fair right now, it is going to improve still further.

It would be idle to deny that business men and financiers are much concerned about the political future. The trouble arising out of the Reparations issue may assume serious proportions. But if another great war is avoided, the probability is that there will be buying on a large scale on the China market, and an increase in speculative activity as well.

Do You Plan For Each Day

By J. J. Mundy

Have you ever thought about it, how much you miss by not having a workable plan of the things you must do in a day?

To take each day as it comes, and do merely what happens to come up is a very lazy, aimless sort of life to lead.

On the other hand, you may plan a lot of things, and bring them about but if you have not counted the cost you may find yourself quite put to it to pay your bills, someday, even though you do have a good income.

It is fine to be fair, and generous and public spirited and all that, but if you take it out of yourself and your family to whom your duty is first, you should be just, before you are generous.

So, a workable plan is what you need!

Count the cost, and decide what is fair to each concerned before you commit yourself to a course of action which may be more expensive for you in the end than you could possibly guess unless you figured it out accurately in the beginning.

Do not be too general in your figures, get down to facts and details and see how you are to come out and than act accordingly.

It is fine to be generous and it is pleasant to be dreamy but it is the man or the woman who makes workable plans who succeeds.

THE DAWN OF HOPE

I never could master the polka,
The waltz was a puzzle to me,
Whenever I tried a mazurka or glide
I hopped like a terrified flea.
Each girl I besought as a partner
Would say, with an all suppressed pout,
"I am all out of breath and half tired to death
Supposing we just sit it out!"
I worked at the trots and the one-steps
And tangoes that came bye and bye
But my feet wouldn't do what I wanted them to
And all of my steps went awry.
I danced with a number of ladies
Who tried to be tactful and sweet
But they often would say in an ironic way:
"Please dance on the floor—not my feet!"
The jazz was beyond my endeavor—
I knew if I tried it at all
They must needs have recourse to persuasion or force
To get me put out of the hall.
When I went with a dame to a party
I would stand there and wistfully glance
At the hurrying throng and pathetically long
To try that impossible dance.
But now that all steps are abolished
And everyone strikes his own gait,
When they make any pace, quite regardless of grace
And put their trust blindly in fate.
When no one adopts the same movement,
But each takes a separate way—
Waltz, fox trot or lope—I'm beginning to hope
That I may be a dancer some day.

China In 1922

WEIHSIEN, SHANTUNG

Among the notable events of the year have been the beginning of passenger service on the Chefoo-Weihsien Auto Road as far as Hwanghsien with the prospect of an early completion of the line to Chefoo; the substitution of Chinese for Japanese guards along the Tsinan-Tsingtau Railway; the excellent spring crops, but poorer autumn crops owing to an early frost; the wide increase in the activities of the bandits in the surrounding country; fairly active business conditions, and a healthy growth in religious work shown by the increase in self-support and of Chinese responsibility for the work of the Church and of Christian schools.

The Chefoo-Weihsien auto road began service on August 10 and has maintained practically a daily service since then between Weihsien and Hwanghsien, a distance of 430 li. The cars are mostly of the five and seven passenger type although they are adding some larger busses. As many of the cars are not new there have been frequent breakdowns causing some delay in the service. So far a very limited amount of baggage is allowed to each passenger and no freight or baggage trucks have been put on the line. The north road has been kept in good condition and has been well policed, no other vehicles being allowed on it. It is reported that the Chefoo end of the road will be open before long and a better service is promised as soon as the road is completed. Even in the incomplete condition the road has proved a benefit to merchants and other travellers.

The new Chinese guards on the Tsinan-Tsingtau Railway are picked men, the best type of Chinese police, and have made fine impression by the efficient performance of their duties. The railroad up to the present has been under Japanese management and has been well run, but the transfer to the Chinese is expected at the beginning of the year.

CROPS GOOD

The spring crops of this whole region were unusually good and the autumn crops gave promise of a good harvest, but an unusually early frost in this immediate region did some damage especially to the tobacco and beans. Weihsien is a great tobacco growing district, but discouraged by the poor crop and small returns of last year, the farmers did not plant as much as usual.

The bandits seem to be becoming more and more active throughout this whole section, although in the immediate vicinity of the city, which is well policed by soldiers, there has been no trouble. Open kidnapping for large ransom, levying assessments on towns and villages and holding up travellers on the roads have been matters of almost daily occurrence in the surrounding country. One band which took 8 or 10 people from a village some miles to the south-west of Weihsien consisted of some 30 men who were reported to be in a kind of military uniform with the words "Manchurian Wealth Levelling Army" on their collars. About two weeks ago a servant of one of the missionaries who was taking a message by bicycle was stopped by a band of 16 well dressed men, who cut his tire so he could not go on, searched him and kept him on a hill-side in the cold one night. As he had no valuables they finally went off and left him, but he said, although they were Chinese, when talking among themselves they spoke a language which was absolutely unintelligible to him. Several months ago one of the missionaries going along a country road was suddenly stopped by three men who pointed their quick fire pistols at him and questioned him very closely as to who he was and where he was going. They evidently did not intend to rob him for they walked along the road and talked freely with him. He asked them to show him their pistols which were new ones, and they frankly told him they had bought them from the Japanese at Tsingtau. That night two men were talking together in a village adjoining the one where the missionary was staying. They heard someone passing on the other side of a wall and when they asked who it was, one of the two was instantly shot dead. $37,000 were demanded from one wealthy family as ransom for three children who had been kidnapped.

The business of the city has been better than for several years past. A number of two storey business buildings have been erected along one of the streets just outside the city wall. Foundations are being laid for an electric light plant for the city. A new machine shop, equipped with modern machinery, under Chinese Christian management, is doing a thriving business especially in the manufacture of looms and water elevators. The hair net business has had a slump owing to an overstocked market and change in style of the nets. Thousands of women and children in this section are engaged in this industry. Black lacquer canes inlaid with silver wire for which Weihsien is famous have been more than ever in demand. Several German merchants have new establishments in the East Suburb and are selling bicycles and dyes. The increase in the number of bicycles in the city is very noticeable.

MORE SCHOOLS

There has been quite a large growth in the number of government primary schools throughout the region, especially girls schools. Efforts have been made to organise teachers meetings and get several schools to come together for purposes of examination, exhibitions and competitions.

There are now over 6,000 church members in the 150 outstations connected with the Weihsien Presbyterian Church. There has been not only a healthy growth in numbers, but more of the churches are showing a desire to call their own Chinese pastors, and are assuming a greater share of the financial responsibility involved. The school work has been fairly satisfactory considering the unsettled condition of the country which has necessarily hampered the work in many ways. The boys and girls middle schools in Weihsien have had good enrollments and there have been over 1,500 boys in the 59 boys country schools, and 500 girls in the 30 girls country schools. The latter part of the year the two Mission Hospitals have been doing good work under the care of two young Chinese doctors, graduates of Shantung Christian University School of Medicine, in the absence of the foreign doctor on furlough.

"Began to think she would never get well."
Our Portrait is of Miss FLORRIE ORGAN, of 100, Clark Street, Ladywood, Birmingham, England, whose father writes:
"My daughter Florrie was suffering with a very bad head covered with Sores and Eruptions, and in fact her mother was afraid to comb her hair. She had been under several doctors, but all to no purpose, so I began to think she would never get well again and lose all her hair. As your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' cured me of Glandular Swellings in the Neck some years ago, and so averted my having to undergo an operation, I decided to give 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a fair trial in the case of my daughter, and I am pleased to say it effected a wonderful cure in just over a fortnight."
SUFFERERS from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realise that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief; to be sure of complete and lasting benefit the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter the root cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes and expels the impurities; that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

U.S. Newspapers Cancel Contract To Print Lloyd George's Memoirs

(China Press Service)

New York, Dec. 16.—In an announcement today the New York Times states that the contract for Mr. Lloyd George's War Memoirs has been cancelled.

It will be remembered that the New York Times and The Chicago Tribune announced on Sept. 15 last that they had jointly purchased for the United States and certain other countries in the Western Hemisphere the serial rights to the War Memoirs of Mr. David Lloyd George, then Prime Minister of England. The price to be paid was £40,000 of which £4,000 was paid in advance. For reasons that will be set forth below, the contract for this purchase has now been cancelled, at the instance of The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune and after legal proceedings had been begun by them against Mr. Lloyd George.

The contract was signed after representations had been made by the agent that the work had been begun and was then in progress, and that, although Mr. Lloyd George might soon retire from office and thus gain more time to devote to the work, yet even if he remained in office, half of it, he hoped, would be delivered to the purchasers by Jan. 1, 1923, and the remainder as rapidly as possible. However, to meet the contingency of Mr. Lloyd George's long continuance in office and arduous occupation with governmental labors, a period of two years was allowed for the completion of the work.

GREATLY SURPRISED

With great surprise, therefore, The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune learned on Nov. 23 that Mr. Lloyd George, who had just retired from the office of Prime Minister, was about to enter into a contract with an American "syndicate" to write weekly and fortnightly articles on current topics for a period that, under a proposed option, might be extended to 103 weeks, overlap the two-year period within which the Memoirs were to be completed, and, in the opinion of the purchasers, endangering their delivery and impairing their value.

The two newspapers at once made energetic protest, but on the following day, Nov. 24, Mr. Lloyd George entered into the new contract, whereupon they urged that the proper course was the cancellation of their contract for the purchase of the Memoirs. Mr. Lloyd George replied that he had not violated his contract with The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune either in letter or in spirit, and that the Memoirs would not be delayed. A subsequent communication addressed to the managing editor of The New York Times, follows:

18, Abingdon St.,
WESTMINSTER, S. W. 1.
1st December, 1922.

Dear Sir: It is with great surprise that I learn that you take exception to the contract I have signed with The United Press for a series of articles on current politics, on the ground that the value of my book on the war will be interfered with by the appearance of these articles before the book is published. I cannot take your view that a series of short articles not encroaching in the least upon the material of the book can possibly influence the arrangements you have made for publication of the serial rights.

Moreover, I can assure you that the date of publication of my war memoirs will not be delayed by reason of my contract with The United Press. I am already engaged, and am employing the assistance of others, in accumulating material for these volumes. As the only Minister who held high office right through the war I imagine my book will be a contribution which no other person is in a position to make to the story of that tremendous event. Such a work is bound to take time, for all the facts must be carefully considered and verified, and the utmost care will be required in their compilation. It is not desirable, therefore, that the preparation should be hurried, and I intend to take ample time over it, at the same time avoiding any unnecessary delay.

EX-PREMIER'S VIEWS

On the other hand, I never supposed for one moment that the contract which I signed with you would preclude me from the publication of political articles. Had there been such a clause in the contract I would never have signed it. Apart from my memoirs, I always intended to write as soon as I left office. I have my living to earn. After seventeen years in office I have retired a poor man, and it is absolutely imperative that I should turn to writing as a means of livelihood. The proceeds of the book for which you hold the serial rights are, as you know, to be given to charity.

The terms of my contract are explicit, and I have not deviated from them. But I hate the idea of standing on the legal interpretation. I therefore set forth the above reasons for your judgment lest you should imagine that I am standing merely on the letter of my bond whilst making illegitimate profit for myself by infringing its spirit. Your truly.

D. LLOYD GEORGE

It was on Aug. 3 that The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune first committed themselves to the purchase of the Memoirs, and it was three weeks later when Mr. Lloyd George, whose prospective profits had in the meantime been criticised in the English press, announced that he would give those profits to charity. The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune were therefore not aware at the time of this commitment of the later announced purpose of Mr. Lloyd George.

A considerable correspondence by cable ensued upon Mr. Lloyd George's contracting, on Nov. 24, for the series of articles to be published before the Memoirs, but without immediate result. Meanwhile his new articles were being offered to newspapers in America in such phrases as "they will be released long before the Memoirs," "our contract covers everything George will write during the coming year and carries with it option on another year's series," and "new series much more valuable than the Memoirs," "articles being of current interest and injuring the value of the Memoirs." The originals of some of these messages, as delivered to the persons addressed, are in the possession of The New York Times. Mr. Lloyd George has expressed strong disapproval of the phrases used in them in offering his new articles to American newspapers, and states that they were issued without his knowledge or authority.

ACTION STARTED

The long cable correspondence failing to produce the desired result, The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune, through their London counsel, the Honorable Sir Charles Russell, began on Wednesday last an action in the High Court of Justice in London against Mr. Lloyd George, asking for an injunction restraining advertisements disparaging or prejudging or affecting the value of the Memoirs, restraining the publication of Mr. Lloyd George's articles written under the agreement made on Nov. 24 with an American "syndicate," and, alternatively asking for the rescission of the contract made by Mr. Lloyd George with The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune. Leave was granted for a motion to be heard on Friday. On Thursday Messrs. Lewis & Lewis, solicitors for Mr. Lloyd George, arranged with Sir Charles Russel for the cancellation of the contract of The New York Times and Chicago Tribune with Mr. Lloyd George and the return to the two newspapers of the advance payment less a part of the commission that had been paid by Mr. Lloyd George to his agent.

The settlement was concluded by two letters, the first from a member of the firm of Lewis & Lewis, representing Mr. Lloyd George, to Sir Charles Russell, representing The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune, the second Sir Charles Russell's reply thereto.

How The New York Times first learned of Mr. Lloyd George's new plans, and how, through the kindly intervention of a friend in London, opportunity was made, but necessarily rejected, to take the new series of articles away from the "syndicate" that had projected it, is shown in the dispatches assembled in the following cable message sent by the managing editor of The New York Times to its correspondent in London:

New York, Nov. 23, 1922.
Nyktim, London.

Received tonight following from a London newspaper:

"London, Nov. 23.—Learned today (Keen, United Press, been negotiating for series thirty articles by Lloyd George, each article about 2,000 words. Keen guaranteed £7,500, syndicating proceeds beyond that amount to be divided between contributor and United Press. Immediately saw George, begged him not to close with offer until I informed you. He agreed not to close until Saturday, on which day Keen returns to America. Articles will be for publication weekly the first twelve weeks, subsequently at fortnightly intervals. They would be of undoubted world-wide import and interest, the subjects including American Relations, Reparations, the Irish Treaty, the Turkish Treaty, the Socialist Menace, International Trade, Our New Parliament. George is strongly impressed by Keen's stating the articles would be published in 150 papers. George values such wide publicity. Reply whether you want his articles. Think could get them for you for definite sum of £8,500, this to include South American newspaper rights. Only knew at last moment of these negotiations, and only my strongest personal entreaties got the matter held up. If you are interested better allow me to go up to £9,000 if necessary to clinch the matter, relying upon me getting you best bargain possible."

"FINISHED!"

To this I sent the following reply:

"New York, Nov. 23.—We will have absolutely nothing to do with Mr. Lloyd George's proposal to sell thirty syndicated articles. On his agent's representation that if he retired from office he would at once set to work to finish his War Memoirs, a start on which had already been made, The New York Times and The Chicago Tribune purchased the American rights to these Memoirs for £40,000. We would therefore, regard an intervening series of articles as the grossest breach of faith toward us.

While it is difficult to believe such a course is contemplated by Mr. Lloyd George, the representations made are such that we feel we must act immediately. Will you therefore make energetic protest against execution of any such plan, which would destroy serial value of Memoirs and greatly impair book value. The new series outlined would inevitably draw upon material properly belonging in Memoirs; and, in any case, Brown's assurances justify us in expecting prompt work on Memoirs. Since reply was sent to London newspaper have received strong protest from Chicago Tribune, which will doubtless instruct its London correspondent to join in your efforts. We desire immediate assurance that other literary work will not be permitted to delay the Memoirs. Answer earliest moment Friday. Van Anna.

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."
J. E. SIMPSON, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."
J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and effectent laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood."
CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result."
F. GERALD BLATTNER, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble."
C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."

Spot and forward bar silver were each up 3-16d. in London yesterday. The New York price advanced to 66½ cents and the London-New York cross rate improved to 466¼.
The only changes in our official quotations here today were a drop in the Rupee rate to 215 and in the Franc rate to 1090.
Our local market here was steady to firm throughout the morning with sellers of Sterling at 3-1 9-16 January, 3-1⅝ February, 3-1 1-16 March and 3-1 for forward delivery.
There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 73 January, 72⅝ February, 72⅝ March and 72¼ for forward delivery.
There were buyers at 1-8d. and 1-4 point above these rates. There were few buyers of Yen today, Banks being good sellers at 66¾ for January delivery and 67½ for March, with no buyers at better than 66½ and 67⅝ respectively.
Banks were quoting 3-2¼ and 74¼ for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for delivery prior to China New Year and 3-1⅞ and 74⅛ for subsequent deliveries. Franc bills could probably have been placed at about 1160.
India bought silver in London yesterday again, and the market there is reported as steady. New York report their market as firm with buyers at the official rate.

Sino-British Trade Association Quits
(China Press Service)
Peking, Jan. 22.—The Sino British Trade Association, established by a group of Englishmen at London about a year ago for the promotion of friendly relations and international commercial interests between China and Great Britain, has been dissolved, according to advices from Mr. Wu Wan, Chinese Consul-General at London.
Since its establishment, the Association had exerted a potent influence upon public opinion towards the promotion of the mutual interests of the two countries. Among other things, the Association had urged its government to remit the Boxer Indemnity for the education of Chinese students in Great Britain.
The dissolution came as a result of the mismanagement of the manager of the Association, who had borrowed money from business houses at London in the name of the Association, and was unable to satisfy the claims of his creditors when the debts became due. Thus the assets of the Association had to be liquidated to make good the deficit, and the Association itself suffered a serious loss of prestige, leading to its dissolution.
Major J. C. Fitzroy, who was delegated by the Association to Peking to investigate Commercial conditions in China, has been recalled.

Croup.
Every young child is susceptible to croup. Don't wait until this dreadful disease attacks your little one before you prepare for it. It comes in the night when chemists' shops are usually closed, and this alone should be a warning. Get and keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at hand. It never fails, acts quickly and is absolutely harmless.
